

People of the Year: Student Activists

Top News Story of 2018: Parkland Student Activism

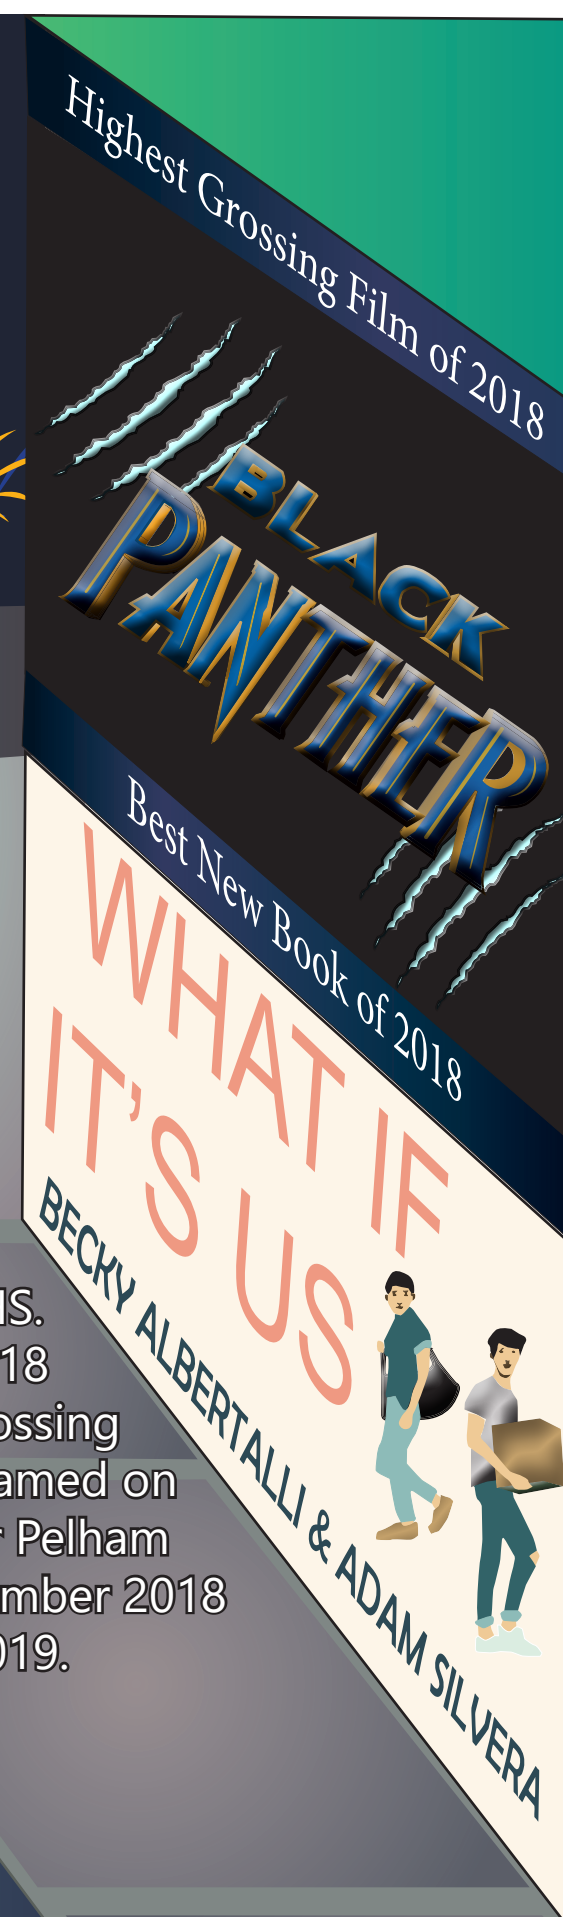

By Luca Rivera, Senior

As the year 2018 comes to an end, and a new year is born, Pelham Memorial High School reminisces on the past 365 days. We look back on the best new book, best local and world sporting event, Word of the Year, Top News Stories, and Person (or People) of the Year, all voted on by students at PMHS. Other top events in 2018 include the highest grossing film and top song streamed on Spotify. A ball drop for Pelham sets the scene to remember 2018 and look forward to 2019.

The Road To 2019!

New Dictionary Word of the Year:

han·gry
/'haNGgre/

adjective: hangry; comparative adjective: hangrier; superlative adjective: hangriest bad-tempered or irritable as a result of hunger.

"I get very hangry if I miss a meal."

Origin

1990s: blend of hungry and angry.

Local Sports Event of 2018

Varsity Boys Lacrosse Team Wins Section 1 Title!

Graphics by Katy Hart, Luca Rivera, & Isabelle Anderson

SPECIAL FEATURE:

Guest Critic Lukas Roth's Personal List of Favorite Holiday Films of Holiday Break 2018

By Lukas Roth, Senior Plus

1. A Christmas Story - A funny, family holiday movie, known especially for the famous line, "you'll shoot your eye out."
2. The Santa Clause and The Santa Clause 2 - A great double-feature because it's a Disney movie and Tim Allen does a good job playing Santa.
3. Elf - A good family movie to watch on Christmas, and Will Ferrell will make you crack up.
4. Home Alone and Home Alone 2 - Another funny double feature, this time with Macaulay Culkin set up against a pair of bandits and some funny and cool traps.
5. The Polar Express - You'll love the pretty cool way a bunch of kids get picked up in the middle of the night by train conductor, Tom Hanks, who takes them to the North Pole for a face-to-face meeting with Santa.