

FLINTSTONE FRESHMEN

Freshman came in fourth place. Among the events the grade won included;

- Girls tug of war
- Girls pickleball
- Boys hockey
- Football
- Trivial Pursuit

Points: 226.5

Owen Duffy winds up in dodgeball game against juniors.

Sabine Bushong, Grace Kiame, Ellie Maiberger, and Nellie Koonce root for a Flintstone finish.

Catherine Hearle sets up for her serve

Freshmen get ready for their first silly walk.

Juniors came in second place. Among the events the grade won included;

- Boys pickleball
- Attendance
- Girls Badminton
- Girls Can Jam
- Balloon Toss
- Boys Frisbee

Points: 325

Junior boys tug towards victory over sophomores.

Allie Prisco aims to knockout freshman in dodgeball game.

King of the Juniors, Old King Cole... Tommy Cole that is! He's carried by Luke Green and Timmy Meyer.

Could anyone have more spirit than Cristina Stefanizzi? She is joined by Courtney Valente and Lauren Rocco.

Ava Sobolak takes the ball down the court in girls hockey.

Annika Halvorson pulls out Jenga block in a heated game of Jenga.

Sophomores came in third place. Among the events the grade won included;

- Dodgeball
- Obstacle Course
- Girls basketball
- Sponge relay
- 24
- Jenga

Points: 280

Spencer Conrad and Erik Fontanella get ready for a dive.

Surfs up for the sophomores during their silly walk performance.

Seaside Sophomores

Garrett Jenkins shoots free throws during boys basketball final.

Olivia Orlando, Katie Valente, and Adriana Labriola cheering for their last Olympics.

Luke Quartararo strikes the ball in kickball.

Seniors came in first place. Among the events the grade won included;

- Girls hockey
- Nitroball
- Silly Walk
- Charades
- Big Bat
- Matball

Points: 340

Seniors gather after winning their final Olympics and lift their trophy high.

70s Seniors